Essential Canine Life Skills - Behaviour Correction Form

Thank you for choosing Essential Canine Life Skills to help you with your dog.

Your trainer will work holistically with you to try and resolve the issues that you are having, we require your full commitment and support to achieve results, without this, success will not be achieved.

Unwanted canine behavior is often a result of underlying problems with dogs, and we always work in the best interest of the dog. If at any time we feel that we have reached the realms of our experience, then we may recommend a referral to a clinical behaviorist. This can be extremely expensive, and it is recommended that before any behavior adjustment program is started the relevant insurance is taken out and a vet check including blood tests is carried out.

Please find attached a behavior form for your completion. Please fill this in as carefully and honestly as you can with as much information as possible, we are not here to judge but need to work with you and your dog openly and honestly.

In cases of aggression, it is a legal requirement for your dog to be muzzled in public. If you are having issues surrounding contact with people, please advise your trainer and ensure your dog is on lead and muzzled before they enter the property.

Once the form is completed, please return it by email or screen shots by what's app to your trainer:

Once work has commenced no refunds will be given. In the case of in-person training sessions not being met you will be advised to work online with your trainer. This has been proven to be successful.

Some dogs that we work with will benefit from weekly classes but are not suited to direct trainer classes. Some of our trainers offer online classes, these classes will really benefit those that cannot attend direct classes so please discuss this with your trainer.

We look forward to working with you and your dog.

Kind regards

The Essential Canine Life Skills Team
